

Network for Education and Support in Immunisation - NESI

Department of Family Medicine and Population Health
Social Epidemiology and Health Policy (SEHPO)
University of Antwerp, Belgium
Contact : carine.dochez@uantwerpen.be

VISION: Saving lives through immunisation

MISSION: To improve the quality and sustainability of immunisation programmes and services, in particular in low- and middle-income countries

GEOGRAPHICAL AREAS AND KEY PARTNERS

1 EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- In-service training
 - Immunisation managers | Vaccinators
 - Community health workers
- Pre-service education
 - Faculties of medicine, nursing, pharmacy and public health
- Strengthening evidence-based recommendation making for National Immunisation Technical Advisory groups

2 TECHNICAL SUPPORT

- Conducting training needs assessment
- Validating curriculum of training programmes
- Supporting institutional strengthening
- Conducting EPI reviews
- Supporting countries with new vaccine introduction

3 OPERATIONAL RESEARCH

- Evaluation pre-service EPI curriculum
- Evaluation effectiveness and impact of training activities
- Evaluation of vaccine acceptance/hesitancy
 - Involvement of MSc students

4 NETWORKING AND ADVOCACY

- Maintaining network of immunisation specialists
- Collaborating with local, regional and global immunisation initiatives
- Sharing of training materials on nesi.be

University of Antwerp

www.nesi.be nesi

NETWORK
FOR EDUCATION AND SUPPORT
IN IMMUNISATION